A very pleasant night of chess. First to finish was board 5 with Megan notching another victory. I didn't see any of the game, but was aware that she had been in very good form in winning the Minor at the Hampshire championship and it is obviously continuing. Next to finish was Richard winning for Ringwood of board 3 to level the match. The bit I saw of this was typical Richard - mating his opponent's king in the middle of the board. He doesn't seem to ever play dull grinds :-) On board 4 it was a tipsy game, where, form the side lines I though Ben was much better and was then losing. Both players contributed to a fighting draw which ended with bare kings. I'd looked a little at board 1 during the early evening and I felt Peter had the initiative but Jamie was defending impressively. Eventually, Peter's attack prevailed ensuring Ringwood would at least share the spoils. Board 2 was the last to finish with both players having to essentially play on the increment. Graham managed a draw, but the suggestion was his opponent had missed a chance during time trouble. Overall the match was very tight from the get-go and we look forward to the return.

Thank you Salisbury for making the long journey down. A mix of shorter decisive games tonight with the other two boards reaching a peaceful conclusion in the end games nearly using all the time. And another overall draw for our B team.

Here is the match report :

Board 1 : Darren (White) had an interesting game against Rob who was down material. In the end Darren saw a forced checkmate line and sacrificed his queen and eventually won.

Board 2 : David(Black) had a comfortable game against James. He won a piece after James made an error and then a pawn. After that Dave launched an attack against James's king winning his Knight. Being up on material Dave exchanged the pieces for an easy winning endgame.

Board 3 : This one went till the last minute. Ros had white against Alan's black forces. In the endgame Ros was down on time but she had an extra Bishop and and extra pawns. Alan on the other hand had two passed pawns. She(Ros) played the endgame more accurately than Alan and won finally.

Board 4: I(played) black against Geoff's white pieces and even though my position was good in the opening, I tried to open up his kingside and managed to blunder on the 11th move and lost a piece. Then on Geoff played very well to manage a win in the endgame.

Many thanks to the Chandlers Ford D team for travelling down and giving us a hard fought game! The game went down to the final board, with very little time on the clock which made it a very exciting finish.
