Excellent and well-deserved result for an impressive Basingstoke side. I didn't see much of the other games but my opponent played excellently under modest time pressure to convert a nice win.

Our board 5 has a P rating so does not violate the 100 points rule.

Philip fell into an opening trap which gave Hamble an early lead. I had what seemed to be an advantage in my game, but some careful piece placement from Martin equalised to a drawish position. The last three games took a lot longer, with Stephen losing a couple of pawns which meant Hamble just needed a draw from the last two games to win the match. Eric was winning on the board but was very short of time and it looked like Martin had some sort of perpetual, but he allowed a swap of Queens and this led to a resignation. Finally Bill had been nursing an advantage and despite some last minutes scares, proved that his form is returning after his 15 year break to beat Jamie on board one. The drawn match was a fair result.
